DuPont Station

DuPont station is a transit center and park-and-ride facility near Interstate-5 in DuPont, a mixed urban village featuring office, retail and residential uses. The new facility provides covered waiting areas, six bays, public art and 125 parking stalls.

Mode
Bus

Highlights
Start of service: February 2003

Location: I-5 at Wilmington Drive and Palisade; the site is near the Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railroad tracks

Budget: $4.47 million

Planning partners: City of DuPont, Pierce Transit, Quadrant Corp

Project architect: Merritt and Pardini